We have made arrangement to have our old girls and boys from various secondary schools, tertiary institutions and universities to converge here at school. Insha Allah. We will be giving you updates about the event.

- b. Giving back to the community

NB: P.7 Pupils will be required to bring a pair of gloves mask and apron for cleaning as part of the giving back to the community program.

10. DISCIPLINE

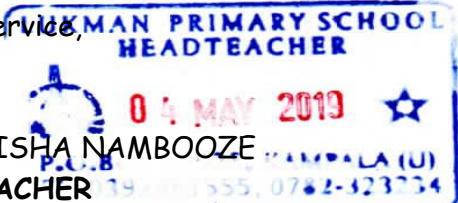

Generally Alhamdulillah, the discipline of our pupils is good. Nevertheless shaping and moulding a child is quite an uphill task in this century, blending children from all walks of life into the Islamic moral and value is impossible without concerted efforts of the school, parent/ guardian and other stake holders. Thus I appeal to parents to ponder on the following pointers that will help to ensure that we raise upright, responsible and adorable children. Let us;

- Adjust our work time & schedules as much as we can to ensure that we get time to spend with our children and let it be quality time.
- Engage and interact more with them to know what goes on in their lives, even the minute detail.
- Follow up on their academic progress and encourage them to work harder.
- Ensure that they associate with right friends and relatives. Avoid sending them off to relatives to stay with them, unless you are sure that they will be monitored well and that the environment is safe and conducive.

- Design for them a holiday program which should include house work, studying, reading of the Quran, watching educative programs like Islamic program, News, Natgeo world in addition to the well censored cartoons and comedies. Subscribe to channels like peace TV, Islam channel, Iqra TV etc. Prevent your children from being contaminated with the highly immoral programs presented on the TV stations that we have. Surprisingly these Islamic channels not only expose to us more Islamic knowledge and spiritual enlightening programs for all ages but also entertainment.
- Ensure a proper routine is followed in the house, including morning Quran program with Adhkaars, 5 daily prayers, prayed in congregation.
- Present ourselves as the best role model for our children, for they do what we do and not what we say.
- Finally, love them, praise them unsparingly and caution them sparingly. Pray pray and pray for them.

What a better time than the holy month of ramadhan for us to implement the above! May Allah make it easy for us. May He accept our Ibaada and fasting. We wish you a blessed month of Ramadhan and Eid Mubarak In shaa Allah.

Yours in service,

HAJAT AISHA NAMBOOZE
